Policy

We take very seriously all expressions of dissatisfaction with our service. If you have received this leaflet, it is likely that you have already expressed your concerns verbally or in writing to a member of staff which has been passed to your solicitor, their supervisor, or the Partners responsible for handling complaints. This leaflet explains our procedures for handling complaints to ensure that each complaint is dealt with swiftly in an attempt to reach an amicable and satisfactory solution.

Reporting & Investigation Responsibilities

Informal verbal complaints should be addressed to the solicitor handling the matter in the first instance. If you are not satisfied with their proposals, then the matter should be taken up with the supervising Partner. The name of that Partner will have been given in your initial client care letter, or you can ask your solicitor or a member of staff if do not have this information. If the matter cannot be resolved informally with the handling solicitor, it would assist investigations if you were to fully detail your concerns in writing so there is less room for misunderstanding your concerns and requirements. If you have already done this, then you need only indicate that you wish for the matter to be dealt with as a formal complaint.

Response Time

Written complaints will be acknowledged within seven days of receipt whereby the name of the person responsible for handling the complaint will be confirmed. A full reply will be sent as soon as the matter has been investigated and our proposals for dealing with your concerns have been agreed upon. In any case, we will always endeavour to provide a full response within twenty-one days. If that is not possible, an interim response will be given explaining why it is not possible to meet this deadline, when we expect our investigations to be complete and a response finalised.

Unresolved Issues

If you are not satisfied with the handling of your complaint, you can ask the Legal Ombudsman to consider the complaint. Normally, you will need to bring the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman within six months of receiving a final written response from us about your complaint.

The Legal Ombudsman details are as follows:

Address: Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6167, Slough, SL1 0EH
E-mail: enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk
Telephone: 0300 555 0333
Minicom: 0300 555 1777

Management

All complaints (written or verbal) are recorded and logged centrally to enable us to detect recurring problems and trends. As necessary, we will implement corrective action in response to individual complaints and improvement measures to prevent adverse trends and correct recurring problems. In this manner, we aim to constantly improve the service we provide.
